

I just want to say that the "No Call" list has been a BLESSING for my family and myself! We can now enjoy dinner without being harssassed by some "friendly sounding" person invading our home. My only wish is that the guidelines for the "No Call" list would also include "charitable organizations" as I have begun to get more and more calls from these type of agencies lately. Can anything be done about them??